

Read the dialogue with your teacher.
Find a partner.
Role-play it.
Change roles.

Jane meets her friend Harry.

JANE: Hi, Harry. How are you?

HARRY: Hi, Jane. I'm not so good.
This is a bad week.
How are you doing?

JANE: Just great! Are you sick?

HARRY: Yes, I'm at home from school today.

JANE: You can have my notebook.

HARRY: Thanks Jane.

Divide into small groups and ask each other these questions. Check the box for your answers.

1. Is Jane a girl?
2. Is Harry a girl?
3. How is Harry?
4. Who is at home from school?
5. What does Jane give to Harry?
6. What does Harry say?

1. Yes, Jane is a girl.	2. No, Harry isn't a girl. Harry is a boy.	3. Harry is sick.	4. Harry is at home from school.	5. She gives Harry a notebook.	6. He says, "Thanks Jane."
-------------------------	---	-------------------	-------------------------------------	--------------------------------	----------------------------

Whole Class Activity

Move around the classroom asking and answering these questions.
Check the box for possible answers.

How are you?

How are you doing?

How are things going?

Things are going well. I'm fine, thanks. I'm not so good. I'm so-so. I'm not doing very well. I'm great!
---